

Head to Head: Impact 2018/19

One of our flagship and most popular programmes, Head to Head is a practice interview programme. Students have the opportunity to have a mock interview with a business volunteer, where they are asked the same questions they could face in future job interviews. Head to Head allows students to practise their interview technique and receive feedback immediately, meaning they can work on their skills ahead of interviews for college, university, or apprenticeships!

Project Reach

521

Volunteers

14

Schools

2482

Students

49

Companies

26

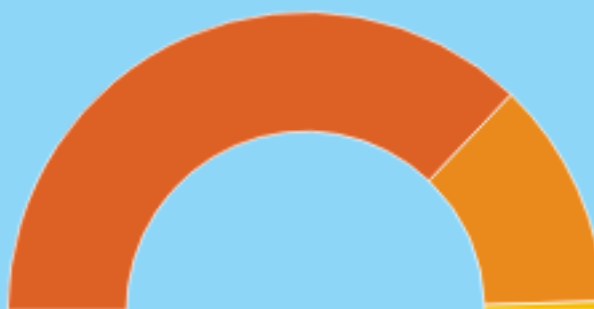

Workshops

Volunteer Feedback

94% of volunteers rated Head to Head as 'Good' or 'Very Good'

% of volunteers who would recommend THEBP events to a colleague

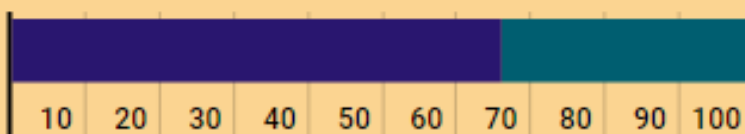

● Strongly Agree ● Agree ● Unsure

"I found the day enjoyable and fulfilling... I feel like I have had a positive impact on the world."

- Volunteer, KPMG

Volunteers who agreed they felt supported by THEBP staff throughout the event

% of volunteers

● Strongly Agree ● Agree ● Unsure

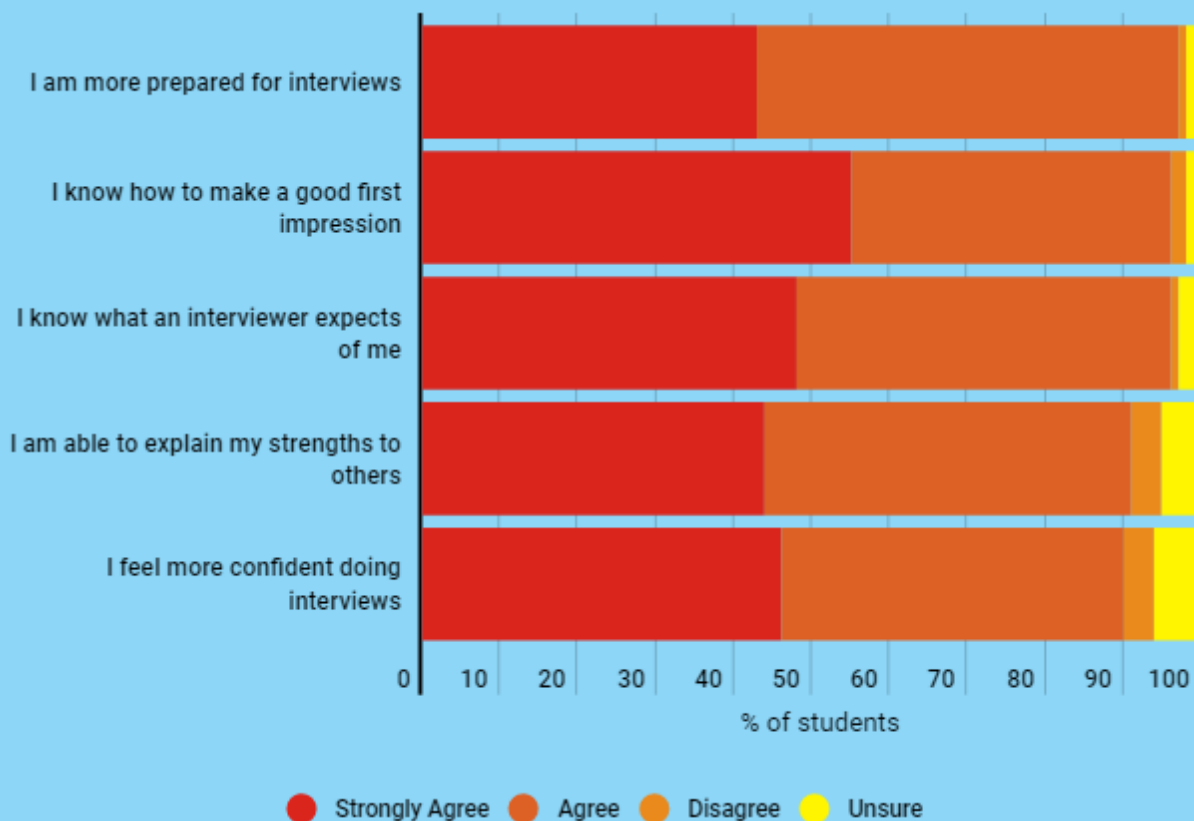

93% of volunteers cited 'giving back to the community' as their main reason for volunteering

"It's great to give the next generation of young people entering the workforce a push in the right direction."

- Volunteer, Barclays

Student Impact

Because of today's event...

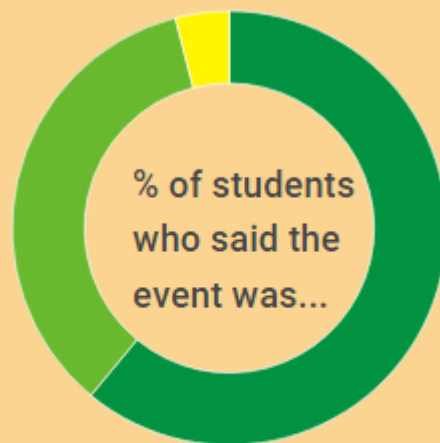

"I enjoyed receiving feedback from my volunteer because I think it really helped me to choose my career path."

- Student, Mulberry School for Girls

100%

of students said the volunteers they met were supportive and helpful

● Very Good ● Good ● Okay

"Today's event was very helpful and because of today I will know my strengths and weaknesses. This event enabled me to know what to expect for a real interview. I am very glad about the comments I received from my interviewer."

- Student, Central Foundation Girls' School

To get involved or for more information, please contact:

Sorcha Hughes, Senior Project Manager, Do More, Tower Hamlets EBP

Direct Tel: 020 7655 0315 Email: Sorcha.Hughes@thebp.co.uk Website: www.thebp.org.uk